

3SI: Summer Soybean Science Institute

Kansas State University

Paid professional development in Manhattan, Kansas

What Is 3SI?

In this three-week, immersive, inquiry-based, professional development, you'll be the one to ask the questions and find evidence-based solutions. Gain experience and confidence to teach science as inquiry. Collaborate and work with educators across the state of Kansas. Learn how to apply Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS), using Cross Cutting Concepts and Science and Engineering Practices, and how to teach "systems thinking" to inspire and encourage our future leaders! When Is 3SI?

Inquiry-based teaching, done right, is not a one-day PD. It is an immersive experience. This paid professional development opportunity runs Monday - Thursday, June 5, 2023 - June 22, 2023, 9:00 AM - 3/4:00 PM. Housing and/or mileage reimbursement is provided for accepted applicants.

Why Do 3SI?

Science methods are commonly one of the areas that most educators wish they had more professional development in. Teacher preparation programs provide limited information on how to do inquiry vs. what to do as the educator.
